

Dear President Obama

My name is Faith. I am four years old. I live in downtown LA with my family. I have three sisters and one brother.

When I grow up I want to be a singer and a dancer.

My wish is to pour water on all the flowers for them to grow.

My favorite song is by Hannah Montana.

If I meet you, Mr. President I would say "Thank you for making my flowers grow."

Love